Schiffer Kids

FALL 2026 CATALOG

Board Books • Picture Books
Middle Grade • Activity Books

Dear Valued Readers and Partners:

We are thrilled to introduce our upcoming Fall 2026 lineup of titles. Included in this season's collection are several delightful picture books as well as immersive activity books! You'll also find themed highlights from our backlist (see Contents to your right). Here's what's new for fall.

The Day Artists boasts gorgeous, immersive art that explores the natural world (p. 8). This is the diurnal companion to The Night Artists (p. 30 in our Nature and Animals section). Our new offerings also include a new series of activity books called Color & Punch Fun (pp. 3–5). These paper craft coloring books are perfect for screen-free, imaginative play and include stand-up dolls, scenery, note cards, bookmarks, and garlands for kids to color! Finally, our friends at Better Day Books have a new addition to their popular KindKids series. Just in time for the holidays, Holly Jolly Christmas Puzzle Book (p. 2) is chock-full of 100 word searches, crosswords, and more to celebrate the season.

Here at Schiffer Kids, we are focused on three key areas:

1. Books That Build Bridges Between Disciplines: We're seeking to publish stories that relate to other areas of our publishing program, exploring subjects like art, science, nature, and history in ways that connect children with the larger world around them. These books will not only entertain but also open doors to new areas of learning and discovery.

2. Voices of Community Leaders and Influencers: We are particularly interested in working with authors who have a strong, influential role in the communities they write for. These voices bring authenticity, diversity, and richness to the stories, reflecting the lives and experiences of children across different cultures and backgrounds.

3. Answering Life's Big Questions: We all know that children are naturally curious, always asking questions about how the world works. We are eager to publish books that provide answers to these fundamental questions in a way that is engaging, fun, and inspirational. These books will encourage children to think deeply, dream big, and explore the world around them with wonder and excitement.

We hope that these new titles will continue to enrich the lives of children and families, sparking joy, curiosity, and a lifelong love of learning. Thank you for being a part of our journey. We are grateful for your continued support and can't wait to share these stories with you.

Best regards,

The Schiffer Kids Team

The Lexile Framework® for Reading evaluates reading ability and text complexity on the same developmental scale. Unlike other measurement systems, the Lexile Framework determines reading ability based on actual assessments, rather than generalized age or grade levels. Recognized as the standard for matching readers with texts, tens of millions of students worldwide receive a Lexile® measure that helps them find targeted readings from the more than 100 million articles, books and websites that have been measured. Lexile measures connect learners of all ages with resources at the right level of challenge and monitors their progress toward state and national proficiency standards. The Day Artists

By Joan Waites

The sumptuous collage art and lyrical text of this picture book liken the sights and sounds of diurnal birds and insects to a captivating stage performance.

When golden brushstrokes glaze over the last trace of night,
the day artists gather to perform.

Dew drops sparkle on sweet-smelling grass.
Brilliant sunbeams fill the stage.

A delightful companion to The Night Artists, this creative nonfiction picture book presents birds, insects, and animals as artists in an enchanting show. The robin is the maestro, and wrens, blue jays, cardinals, bumblebees, katydids, and others join together to create beautiful harmony. Educational back matter further encourages readers to learn more about the creatures referenced in the story.

Key Features:

- An array of "artists": Spotlighted performers include various types of birds and insects.
- Bonus educational content: Following the story, a special section presents interesting facts about diurnal creatures and nature.
- A visual treat: Each element of the artwork was cut from hand-painted/printed papers and glued down piece by piece to create the lush, collage-style illustrations.

With stunning illustrations, charming text, and educational content, this engaging picture book encourages young readers to look at nature in a creative way.

Wild Colt

By Lois Szymanski, Illustrated by Linda Kantjas

Follow a wild pony colt through rhyming verse and coastal landscapes on Assateague Island.

Journey into the coastal wetlands of Assateague Island with this beautifully illustrated picture book that introduces young readers to the life of a wild pony colt. Told in gentle, rhyming verse and brought to life with luminous oil paintings, the story follows the colt as he moves with his herd through long summer days—running along the ocean, splashing at the waterhole, and sharing space with turtles, deer, and other wildlife.

The narrative traces the colt's early life in his natural habitat through the famed Pony Penning and auction on Chincoteague Island, offering a thoughtful, age-appropriate introduction to this unique tradition.

This new edition includes an expanded educational section with

- a wildlife identification guide for animals of the region,
- discussion questions, and
- wetlands facts.

The combination of the beloved story's lyrical text and the expanded educational resources make Wild Colt ideal for classrooms as well as family read-aloud and bedtime reading.

The World in Me

By Daria Tavoularis

A lyrical picture book in which a child sees themself reflected in the magic of nature and discovers that all life is connected.

Through lyrical verse and rich, dreamlike imagery, The World in Me invites children to see themselves as part of nature's great story—from shifting skies to deep emotions, from the rhythm of time to the dance of seasons.

As young readers journey through one continuous panoramic illustration, they'll spot a fairy, a child, a crow, and a red thread on every page—gentle symbols of connection, curiosity, and care for all living things.

A poetic meditation on empathy and earth stewardship, The World in Me reminds us that everything in nature—including ourselves—is beautifully intertwined.

Hanging Out with Gram

By Nancy Viau, Illustrated by Amanda Lenz

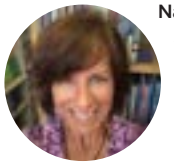

In this humorous picture book, a determined boy has big plans for a special day with his grandmother—but adventurous Gram has ideas of her own!

Young Mateo is excited to hang out with his grandmother, and he has carefully prepared a list of activities that he thinks are exactly right for sweet, old Gram—complete with leisurely walks, lots of rest, and carefully selected foods. However, Mateo soon realizes that Gram has her own way of interpreting his list. One by one, she debunks his expectations, encourages him to be more active, and leads him on a series of unexpected, new adventures.

A celebration of multigenerational family bonds, the story encourages grandparents and grandchildren to share interests and adventures and to truly get to know each other. Charming, detailed illustrations pair with funny dialogue and situational humor for a fun, playful tale that is perfect for kindhearted kids and young-at-heart grandparents.

Mermaid Candy

A Sea Glass Adventure

By Ashley Regina Lucas

This charming picture book about a mermaid and her underwater friends teaches young readers what sea glass is and how picking it up helps the health and happiness of the ocean.

One day, a sweet little mermaid discovers frosty glass pieces in her underwater cove. Their range of pretty colors—cotton candy blue! caramel brown! juicy lime!—inspires her to dub them "Mermaid Candy," but she realizes that they do not belong in the ocean. Despite their beautiful appearance, these treasures are actually remnants of trash that is polluting the ocean and endangering underwater creatures. The mermaid rallies her merbunny friends to pull off a creative solution that protects the ocean and its marine life, while enchanting beachcombers on the shore.

Adorable, kawaii-influenced illustrations blend watercolor painting with photographs of real sea glass, accompanying the story's environmental lesson. Featuring a delightful cast of characters, including a mermaid, merbunnies, marine life, and rascally squirrels, this imaginative adventure into the world of sea glass will be enjoyed by children and beachcombers of all ages.

Ages 4–8 years • Lexile: 920

Mr. Owliver loves his job as night watchman for the Animaltown Art Museum, partly because he's an owl and is up at night anyway, but mostly because he's proud to protect such beautiful works of art. His friends think he must be lonely, but he has the company of all the subjects in the paintings. One in particular, the lovely Ms. Wren in Auguste Wrenoir's The Loge, is his favorite. One night on his birthday he has a feeling that things aren't as they should be. That's when he makes a startling discovery that begins a night full of surprises. This is definitely a birthday Mr. Owliver will never forget! This book is designed to introduce children to some famous masterpieces while entertaining the adult reader with visual puns.
